

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 168

By Ketron

A RESOLUTION to celebrate G.R.I.T.S. (Girls Really Into Shooting) Days in Tennessee.

WHEREAS, G.R.I.T.S. (Girls Really Into Shooting) is an organization created by women, for women, whose purpose is to foster and encourage more women to participate in shotgun sports by introducing them to the sport in a way that is conducive to learning, laughing, sharing, and succeeding with other like-minded individuals; and

WHEREAS, it is the stated mission of G.R.I.T.S. to introduce the game of shooting to women of all ages, help develop their skills in a noncompetitive setting, enhance their level of fun, and expand their horizons in a way that many women have never considered; and

WHEREAS, the goal of G.R.I.T.S. is to grow the sport by developing chapters in each state that will sponsor organized events and gatherings to spread its message, and inspire and motivate women to become involved in shooting sports as a lifelong pursuit; and

WHEREAS, based in Henrico, Virginia, the Board of Directors of G.R.I.T.S. is composed of Elizabeth Lanier, Mimi Wingfield, Linda Henson, and Sandy Nunnally, and the Advisory Council includes John Glynn, Dan Andrews, Brandy Greenwell, Wayne Holden, and Paula Brooks; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly join with this exemplary organization on this special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we join with the members of G.R.I.T.S. as they celebrate G.R.I.T.S. Days in Tennessee on March 27–28, 2015.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
